FAILED TO APPEAR

Toledo Football Players Disappointed the Perrysburg Team.

Perrysburg did not open their football season as expected Sunday afternoon. The Broadways failed to arrive, and greatly embarrassed the locals, as there was a large crowd out to see the first game.

It may never happen again, so be out next Sunday.

The Classers and Maumee Jrs. opened their season Sunday, and the Classers had an easy victory by the score of 48 to 0.

Next Sunday the strong Navys will play the Perrysburg eleven. This will be a good game and plenty of rooters should turn out to make the noise.

Don't forget the Classers play ahead of the Perrysburg games, and you get two games for one price.

First game starts at 1 o'clock. Second at 2:30. Come early and stay late.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS.

Twenty-three examinations are to be conducted by the state civil service commission during the month of November according to its official bulletins just issued which will be sent free to all who request the same. The more important positions to be filled through these examinations are those of florists for state institution green houses, assistant physicians for state institutions, dairy-men for the new prison farm near London, storekeepers for various state institutions, district deputies to be employed by the industrial commission and dairy inspectors to be employed by the board of agriculture. All of these positions carry with them a substantial salary, and the appointments will be permanent. A score of other positions will be filled through competitive examinations to be conducted during the month of November. Bulletins will be mailed free to all who address the commission at Columbus. A postal card will bring it.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

DISSOLVED INJUNCTION

Perrysburg Sidewalk Case Decided in Favor of Defendant.

The hearing on the motion to make the temporary injunction permanent in the somewhat celebrated Perrysburg sidewalk case was given a hearing before the Hon. Judge Platt on Monday. B. F. James represented the plaintiff, while Harrington & Dunn and F. E. Bowers represented defendants Bowers.

The court held that J. H. Wilson was not entitled to an injunction in the case because he is not a property owner on the side of the street where the sidewalk in question is located.

The plaintiff immediately filed an appeal bond and the case will have a hearing in the court of appeals.

The filing of the appeal operates as a continuance of the temporary injunction until after the case is heard in the higher court, so the attorneys claim.

MARRIED.

On Saturday, September 13, 1916, at 9 o'clock a. m., at the residence of Rev. W. H. Pholey, occurred the marriage of Miss Marie J. Simmons to Mr. Carl R. Grimes. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Simmons, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grimes, all of Perrysburg.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal pair started for Cleveland where they will spend a week with relatives.

On their return they will reside on East Front street, where they will be at home to their friends after November 15th.

Many friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

NIGHT WATCHMAN

Need of an Officer in Perrysburg Very Apparent.

Recent burglaries in neighboring towns and counties demonstrate the great need in Perrysburg of a police officer for night duty in Perrysburg.

Maumee has such an officer and unless conditions change very soon, Perrysburg will probably have reason to regret not having such protector.

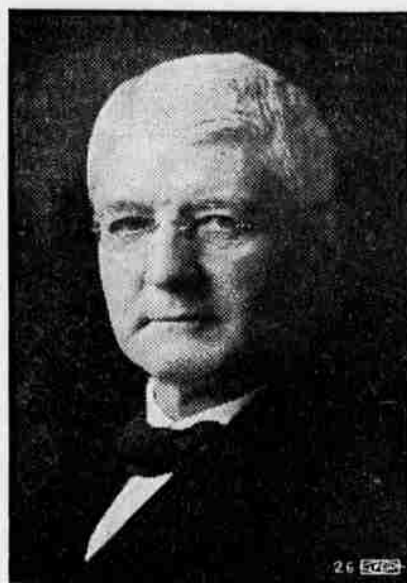

If every business man in town would pledge to contribute to the fund for his salary, and he would not only be a protection against burglars, but an additional safeguard against fire.

A MINUTE'S TALK ABOUT THE COURT OF APPEALS.

On November 7th the voters of the 6th Appellate District, composed of Erie, Huron, Sandusky, Ottawa, Wood, Fulton, Williams, and Lucas counties, will have an opportunity to vote for one judge of the Court of Appeals.

This court consists of three

JUDGE S. S. RICHARDS, Clyde, Ohio.

judges, two of whom live in Toledo, Lucas county, and one in Clyde, Sandusky county.

Of the Toledo judges, one has four more years to serve, and the other has two years.

The judge whose first term is about to expire is Silas S. Richards, of Sandusky county, who has efficiently and honestly served the 6th District during his first term.

As will be noticed, Judge Richards is the only member of the Appellate Court from our district who does not live in Toledo. He is seeking re-election.

It speaks well for Judge Richards that in the seven counties outside of Lucas—the counties that contain considerably more than half of the population, and from which at least one appellate judge should come—not one man would run against him.

Judge Richards' only opponent is from Toledo. In a thickly populated district containing over 3000 square miles, why centralize the Appellate Court in Toledo? It is a non-partisan office, and in fairness should be non-sectional. Let it remain the 6th Appellate District—not the Toledo Appellate District—by continuing Judge Richards on the bench.

Issued by S. S. RICHARDS.

BRADNER WINS THE BANNER AT E. L. RALLY.

In the Epworth League rally of the Findlay district, Bradner was awarded the banner for having the largest per cent of its members present. Fostoria was second. Dr. Warren Dunham of Lima, spoke to more than 400 members from 18 leagues.

Dependancy.

When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Dependancy is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.

RANDOM RECOLLECTIONS

Some Presidential Campaigns of Many Years Ago.

In the presidential campaign of 1872 the Republican ticket was headed by Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, of Illinois, for president, and Hon. Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts, for vice president. In this year a great many Republicans had become dissatisfied with the administration of the regular organization, and had seceded. They formed a little party of their own, and styled themselves "Liberal Republicans." The real cause of their leaving the old party I do not know, nor does it matter here. They met, had a convention, and nominated Horace Greeley, of New York, for president, and B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri, for vice president. The Democratic party made no nominations at all, but their convention endorsed the nominees of the Liberal Republicans.

The campaign of this year was not nearly as exciting as had been the one of four years previous. Both of the parties erected poles after the campaign was opened in due form, and the customary speeches were made and rallies held, also both parties had their marching clubs for the usual torchlight parades. There were also quite a number of poles erected by private parties during this campaign, the most noteworthy of which was a fine hickory pole raised by the late John G. Knoll, near his residence on the north side of Third street, about midway between Walnut and Cherry streets. Mr. Knoll was at one time postmaster of our village, when the postoffice was located on Front street, where the residence of Fred Hillebrand now stands. Another fine pole of this campaign was the white ash pole erected by Charlie Kreps, son of George Kreps, dry goods merchant, at his home on Second street. This pole was somewhat unique, in that it was raised far up in the branches of a large tree in the grounds of the Kreps residence, and though the pole was not so tall in itself, the flag on it was plainly visible for a long distance. Also in this campaign it was noticeable that most of the poles carried two flags, one large flag of our country at the top, and underneath it a long streamer bearing the names of the respective candidates. There were also a great number of poles of various sizes put up in this campaign by mere boys ranging in age from 10 to 16 years, who knew nothing of politics, but who thought the party to which their father belonged was "the" party. Whenever any of these poles were to be raised all of the boys in the neighborhood turned out to help the proceedings, and they usually went through the same ceremonies as did their elders. One of these poles was the proud possession of the writer, and consisted of the longest hickory hoop-pole which could be obtained at the stove factory, near the railroad, and the little flag (which was presented to me by my dear old friend, John Crattie, the one-time general utility man at the old D. & M depot).

SOME OBSERVATIONS

Concerning Nothing Very Serious But Worthy of Thought.

No, Mr. hunter! You have no right to tramp over the farms and shoot up every bit of game to be found, merely because you have a hunter's license. If you wish to play safe you must have the written or verbal consent of the land owner.

With the amount of inspection that prevails it is difficult to understand how illness of any character can prevail. The Grocer's advocate makes the following cry:

An inspector's in the ice box,
An inspector's on the roof,
An inspector's in the stable,
To examine Dobbin's hood;
An inspector's midst the canned goods,
An inspector's after germs
Which he thinks are in the butter,
And another after worms;
For we swear by sanitation
And the "healers" need the kale,
And the over-taxed consumer—
No one listens to his wail.

NATURE FAKER.

A Hen—
is not supposed to have much common sense or tact,
Yet every time she lays an egg she cackles forth the fact.

A Rooster—
hasn't got a lot of intellect to show
But none the less most roosters have good sense enough to crow.

But Man—
the greatest masterpiece that nature could devise,
Will often stop and hesitate before he'll ADVERTISE!
